NOTICE OF INFORMATION PRACTICES (LONG FORM)

MISC-798 06 01

Your application or information you provide in connection with a claim is our major source of information. However, in order to evaluate your application for insurance, to service your policy or to process a claim, we may ask for additional information about you and any person who will be insured under this policy or who is the subject of the claim. This is sometimes necessary to make certain that the statements on your application are accurate or to process the claim. We may also need more details than you have already given us.

INFORMATION WE COLLECT

In connection with an application, the information that we may collect will enable us to make possible judgments about your character, habits, hobbies, finances, occupation, general reputation, health or other personal characteristics. In connection with a claim, the information we may collect will enable us to process the claim.

We may obtain this information from several sources. For example, we may contact any physician, clinic or hospital where any persons to be insured or making a claim have been treated. We may need information from your employer. But, before we ask for information from any of these sources, we will ask you to sign an authorization, which gives us permission to proceed, unless authorization is not required by law. We may get information by talking or writing to other insurance companies to which you applied for a policy or with which you have made a claim, members of your family, neighbors, friends, your insurance agent and others who know you. We may also obtain information from motor vehicle reports, court records, or photographs of the property you want insured or with regard to which you have made a claim.

CONSUMER REPORTS

It is common for an insurance company to order a report from an independent organization — a consumer reporting agency or an insurance-support organization — to verify and add to the information that you have given us. These reports are used to help us decide if you qualify for the insurance for which you have applied or to evaluate the claim you have made.

They may:

- _____ pertain to your mode of living, character, general reputation and personal characteristics such as health, job and finances.
- _____ contain information on your marital status, driving records, etc.
- _____ include information on the loss history of your property.
- _____ include information gathered by talking or writing to you or members of your family, neighbors, friends, your insurance agent and others who know you.
- _____ include information from motor vehicle reports, court records or photographs of your property and/or the property involved in the claim.

Upon your request, the consumer reporting agency or insurance-support organization will attempt to interview you in connection with any report it prepares. The information may be kept by the reporting organization and may later be given to others who use its services. It will be given only to the extent permitted by the Federal Fair Credit Reporting Act and your local state law, if any. Upon request and identification, the consumer reporting agency or insurance-support organization will provide you with a copy of the report.
